

GENERAL INFORMATION:

The Department of Italian is conducting its forty-second summer program in Italy in the beautiful city of Urbino to provide students at various levels with an opportunity to study Italian in its natural environment. Urbino is an ideal location for summer study for its climate, its proximity to major centers of Italian culture, its University, and the superb setting of a Renaissance city. Beaches on the Adriatic are within easy access. The Summer 2014 Session will be under the direction of a Professor of Italian at Rutgers.

ADMISSION:

Participants must be undergraduates at Rutgers or other colleges, or high school seniors who will enter college in 2014-2015, whether at Rutgers or elsewhere, and who will be eighteen years of age at the time of the group's departure. Teachers and other qualified applicants may also be admitted on a space available basis. No previous knowledge of Italian is required since the program offers language courses at the elementary level and two courses conducted in English. Applications will be considered as soon as they are complete, and the applicant will be notified of the decision promptly. Applications received after March 28 will be processed on a space available basis.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS:

Students will stay in dorms at the University of Urbino. Three meals a day will be provided.

CULTURAL EXCURSIONS:

Program cost includes tours of Urbino and group excursions to some of the most beautiful cities in Italy. In the last few years we have visited Ravenna, San Marino, Florence, Siena, and San Gimignano.

TRANSPORTATION:

The group will fly from New York/Newark to Italy on approximately June 28 and will travel to Urbino by bus. Program cost includes round-trip airfare to Italy. Students are responsible for their own expenses should they decide to extend their stay in Italy after the end of the program. The airfare will be deducted from the cost of the program for those students who wish to make their own arrangements.

PROGRAM COSTS:

$7,000 (IN-STATE) AND $7,500 (OUT-OF-STATE).

Program costs include round-trip airfare, group transfers between the airport and the University of Urbino, room, board, tuition, and group excursions. Students must pay for lunch on group excursions, their own personal expenses, dental work, books, etc. and $76.00 (subject to change) for health insurance for the duration of the program. The program accepts no responsibility for personal property which must be insured separately if so desired and reserves the right to make any changes necessitated by circumstances. Travel insurance is available from the travel agent.

REFUNDS:

The $1,800 deposit is not refundable after March 28. There is a $300 deduction from payments for withdrawal on or before March 28. Students withdrawing on or before May 1 will receive a 50% refund of the total cost of the program. There will be a $500 refund to students withdrawing between May 1 and the group's departure. There will no refund after the departure.
